Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

Peter can declare with certainty that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of the Living God, because God himself had chosen Peter and prepared him for a new and unique vocation. Only God, with his “unsearchable ways,” could bestow on Peter such clarity in the midst of the many false claims about the identity of Christ. Christ begins to use Peter as an instrument—a Vicar—by which the Lord will open heaven in the world, and “what he opens, no one shall shut.” All that Peter is and does is from Christ, “for from him and through him and for him are all things.”
